Tour de Vines Cycling Weekend - 24-26th October and 7-9th November 2014

A wonderful cycling tour through rolling vineyards, some of Australia's oldest cellar doors and world class wines, and gourmet delights, with friendly locals and a sleepy, country feel. The perfect weekend escape.

Starting in Auburn on Friday night, an easy 2 hour drive from Adelaide, you will cycle to Clare on Saturday, stay overnight and ride back to Auburn on the Sunday. Join our local guide, and let Tour de Vines show you the best of this stunning wine region, whilst cycling with like-minded friends in a small group. The cycling is off road and safe, covering approximately 35kms each day and designed for non-riders, so just about anyone that is a little active can do this tour. And we take you to the best cellars doors so you can experience the amazing food and wine of this gourmet region. Please go to their website to learn more and for bookings

Claymore Wines - not just a Winery

Did you know Claymore Wines a Riesling Trail Business Partner not only sell a large range of local award winning wines, they also stock a large range of local produce! There are a large range of olive oils, dukkahs, sauces, jams and jellies from Evilo Estate. Or maybe you need Patly Hill's preserved lemons, pickled grapes or capsicum sauce. Cherry preserves from Piambong Farm are also on offer. Claymore Wines also stock a large range of Pangkarra's pasta, flour and crunchy lavosh - perfect for a cheese platter. Sugar Shack's Olive Oil soaps are very popular and a new range of Jess Redden's 'Ruby & Rose' soy candles in a range of beautiful fragrances are the perfect gift for any lady! If pottery is your thing, Rhonda Dunstan's range of Australiana items will delight. And remember, Claymore Wines offer all locals a 10% discount - so next time you're driving by, stop in for a tasting and browse the shelves full of delightful local products.

Chrissy van der Jeugd, Cellar Door Manager, will be happy to assist you.
